Chad's Blog

A day in the life of a cowboy

Hi! I'm Chad. I'm a cowboy in Montana, USA. I work on a big farm with ten other cowboys. The farm has got 3,000 cows and bulls. There are also five or six dogs and they help us look after the cows. As you can imagine there are cats there too but don't ask me about their number. It's different every season.

Let me tell you about my job. In the winter we give food to the cows. In the spring there are lots of calves and we look after them too. The summer is the most exciting time for me. At this time of year I usually sleep in a tent. I get up very early, at 5 a.m., and with the other cowboys we often cook breakfast on a fire. After breakfast I get ready. Then we ride to the 'cow camp'. We move cows to new places every day. We usually work 16 hours a day in the summer. But on Thursdays we have lots of fun – we ride in the rodeo! It's amazing!

I am very tired in the evening. But before dinner I clean my horse and give him his dinner. He is very important for me – I can't imagine my life without him. My horse's name is Bullet and he is the fastest horse I know! Sometimes he can gallop at around 50 kilometers an hour. I love Bullet!

Before I go to bed, I get washed and have dinner with the other cowboys. We eat lots of meat and potatoes and drink coffee.

A cowboy's life is dangerous but I love it!

A 2.30 I like school ... but I'm not a perfect student!

Teacher What's that noise? Poppy?

Poppy Erm ... it's my mobile, Miss. I've got a text message.

Teacher Do you know the school rules, Poppy?

Poppy I'm not sure, Miss Naylor.

Teacher Well, you mustn't use your mobile phone at school. Is that clear?

Poppy Yes, Miss. I mustn't use my mobile at school.

Teacher That's right. Now give me your phone, Poppy. You can have it after the lesson.

Poppy Thank you, Miss.

Teacher Now, open your books. Where's your Maths homework, Poppy?

Poppy It's at home, Miss.

Teacher You must bring it to the lesson.

Poppy Yes, Miss. Sorry, Miss.

I mustn't forget the school rules. And I must remember my homework!

B Ten minutes later ...

Teacher OK, do Exercise 3. You mustn't talk to your partner ... I don't believe it! Whose mobile phone is that?

Poppy It isn't mine, Miss!

Teacher Then whose mobile is it?

David Erm ... I think it's yours, Miss.

Teacher What? Oh, yes. Sorry. Now, do Exercise 3.

David Yes, Miss.

Cathy's visit to Bansko

Cathy is a British student from Newcastle. She is on a student exchange visit to Bulgaria. She is in Bansko at the moment and is living with her friend Gergana's family. She sends messages to her mum every day.

Hi Mum!

How are you? How was your day?

Mine was fantastic! It was very busy too. In the morning I was at school. At 8 a.m. we were in class. It was a Maths lesson and there was a test. It was really difficult for me because the instructions were in Bulgarian. I wasn't the only foreign student in class today. There was a girl from Greece and also a boy from Germany. Gergana's classmates and teachers were very helpful. The lessons weren't boring at all and the teachers were nice but strict.

The afternoon was even more exciting. Gergana and I were in the school dance club till 3 p.m. Later in the afternoon, we were in a swimming pool with hot mineral water. We were in the water until 8 p.m. in the evening and we weren't tired at all!

Ok, Mum, I have to go now. It's dinner time!

Lots of love to you and Dave!
